ALBI CORDES SUR CIEL

"I will drink milk when cows graze on grapes"
Henri de Toulouse - Lautrec

With friends

Morning: Accompanied by our guide, set off aboard your coach into the heart of the episcopal town and medieval village of Cordes sur Ciel.

Visit the impressive cathedral of Sainte-Cécile, World Heritage listed by UNESCO. Impressive thanks to its allures of a fortified château; this is the largest brick-built cathedral in the world.

At the Palais de La Berbie, you can view an exceptional collection from painter Henri de Toulouse - Lautrec, a native of the region.

Lunch at a restaurant in the centre of town

Afternoon: After a journey up on the little tourist train you will set out to explore Cordes sur Ciel, a steep medieval village of narrow streets, fortified doorways and ramparts. A little break brimming with charm!
