

GOURMET Toulouse

“Cassoulet is the Holy Trinity of Occitan cuisine: Castelnaudary the Father, Carcassonne the Son, Toulouse the Holy Spirit, Cassoulets all”
Prosper Montagné

Morning: rendezvous with our guide for a two-hour walking tour : the Place du Capitole and Saint Sernin Basilica are all yours, and you will finish your tour at one of the city's great markets (Victor Hugo or Carmes) to try one of the products of our local gastronomy.

Sample a Cassoulet at a restaurant in the city centre

Afternoon: set out for a 35 minute ride aboard the little train

Discover one of the emblems of Toulouse: the violet.

Situated in an authentic barge from the 1930s moored along the Canal du Midi, the Maison de la Violette will teach you everything about this flower that you will be able to taste at the end of the visit!

YOU WILL LOVE :

- All the colours of the markets
- This typical dish of Toulouse
- The gentle flavour of the violet

Every day, except
Sunday and Monday
