Toulouse

*"The church of Saint-Sernin lights up the evening
A flower of coral that the sun illuminates
Maybe it is because of this, despite your black and red
Maybe it is because of this that they call you the Ville
Rose
I can see your square once more, Oh my Gascon town"
Claude Nougaro*

With friends

Morning: rendezvous with our guide for a two-hour walking tour. The Place du Capitole, Saint-Sernin Basilica, Jacobins Convent and the banks of the Garonne are all yours.

Lunch at a restaurant in the city centre

*Roquefort flan, salad of baby spinach and nuts
Toulouse Sausage from « Chez Garcia », home-made potato puree
Crème brûlée with Bourbon vanilla
Wine and coffee*

Afternoon: discover Saint-Étienne Cathedral and its quarter with a discrete and distinguished charm, far from the hustle and bustle of the city. Set out to explore narrow streets and little squares, the mansions of the Parliamentarians and private gardens.
